

Local Matters.

Port of Memphis.

Latest News by Telegraph.

TO ASSOCIATED PRESS OF MEMPHIS.

TRADE—For Associated Press.—The great flood at Galveston has been the cause of the loss of the Ark. Adams, the clerk of the steamship Adm. Mc. Sherry, in the Southern Hotel.

REVIEW—During the month of December last the receipts from passengers on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad were $78,000. The number of passengers who passed over the road was 24,000.

HARRISON'S COURT—The Recorder yesterday had twelve cases before him, generally of an unimportant kind; among them two women had six dollars each for malatia.

MEMPHIS—Considerable surprise was expressed yesterday, at the occurrence of the great flood at Galveston, in the fact that the Memphis and Charleston railroad did not present its usual amount of traffic this morning. We trust the interruption will be rectified before our next issue.

TELEGRAPH—For Associated Press.—The Memphis and Charleston railroad, which connects with the Texas river, was down yesterday, owing to having come in contact with the chimneys of a steamboat.

MEMPHIS—The officials of the Ohio Railway Station are preparing to move their offices to New York, where they hope to be settled there in the course of next week.

TRAVELERS—The obliging agents of that great institution, the Adams Express, have on their hands a large number of packages for delivery by railroads, by reason of the arrival of the mail in time for distribution, but night.

LATE CHANGE—Mr. PEPPER is now clearing his great sale of valuable books at Col. Lockwood's, No. 32 Main street. It has been a success, and he expects to close it out to-night. Now is the time to get bargains.

THE LADY'S BOOK—Georges, for February, the higher-priced favorite, is out and may be had at Geo. Faxon & Co. It is one of the most popular of the celebrated serials that has come out. The fashion plate is very especially beautiful.

HEARWELL—In the hall of the Horace Giles Club, which comes off this night a week will be a charming soiree. The most noted and elegant persons will progress to the grand hall, and others will be entertained in the smaller rooms. The dress will be full of variety, and a few will give satisfaction to passengers, and her officers will be found kind and agreeable persons.

THE INFORMER—The New Orleans pocket book has just arrived, and will be sold at Col. Lockwood's, No. 32 Main street. It is the best pocket book in the market.

THE STEAMERS—Philadelphian leaves today, at 4 P.M., for New York.

THE LOUISIANA REPUBLICAN—January 14th—For Associated Press.—The steamer Philadelphia leaves today, at 4 P.M., for New York.

THE RIVER—The river has avoided high water for twenty-four hours ending at dark last evening, and is now at a point where it is not expected to rise again.

THE CLOUDS—For Associated Press.—The clouds have given way, and the sun is now out.

THE HORSE—For Associated Press.—The horse is now out.

THE HORSES—For Associated Press.—The horses are now out.